

VOLUNTEERING AT TERRA MADRE NORDIC 1-3 September?

Imagine yourself as a volunteer on the food event of the year in Stockholm 2022? Then Terra Madre Nordic is the place to be!

Becoming a volunteer during Terra Madre Nordic is a guarantee for exciting food related life-time experiences. We gladly accept volunteers both before and under the event. As a volunteer you can work with many different, relevant and exciting tasks.

Terra Madre Nordic is surrounded by an atmosphere of creativity and Nordic cosiness in combination with inclusiveness and knowledge – together we create the Nordic meeting place for good, fair and clean food.

Below you find some examples of important volunteer tasks during the event (schedules to be agreed upon later, tasks and programme to be updated etc.):

- Communication – take care of social media and other information during the three days
- Event space and activities – at every location we need hosts to take care and assist with
 - Producers at the marketplace
 - Activities around the mobile kitchens and the event spaces, e.g.
 - the outdoor classroom (Slow Food Youth Network), the Dance pavilion (Slow Fish), the Workshop spaces w activities like tastings and masterclasses, the main conference room at Stora Skuggans Vårdshus where talks, panels and debates will take place
- Food service area - assisting chefs, bakers and producers etc. preparing and selling food for the visitors
- Secretary for the jury groups of the Nordic Artisan Food Awards – looking for a very special task during Thu 1 September? Then this is the opportunity to learn much more about Nordic Artisan Food
- The opening dinner and activities taking place during the evening on Thu 1 September
- Logistics marketplace and event spaces – all kinds of tasks to make the event run smoothly

As a volunteer you will be part of the group of hosts taking care and helping out our participants and guests as well as keeping spaces clean and attractive. Being part of Terra Madre Nordic also means having fun while working and building your future Nordic network within food and hospitality! Together we make everyone welcome promoting the Slow Food values of good, clean and fair food for everyone!

Interested? Then do not hesitate to contact us for registration and more information.
